Please join us in celebrating National Compliance & Ethics Week from Nov. 6–9. Activities are planned during this week to acknowledge and celebrate the efforts of UC Irvine Health to uphold compliance standards and promote ethical values.

Each day of National Compliance & Ethics Week, you will receive an email from the Compliance Office to invite you to participate in the Daily Compliance Quiz to build upon your knowledge of important topics associated with the theme of this year’s Compliance & Ethics Week: “Make Good Choices.” You will be asked one question and entered into a prize drawing for your participation.

We hope you will show your compliance spirit by taking the time to meet with Compliance Office staff and participate in some of the fun activities planned. The Compliance Office staff will be available as follows:

Monday, Nov. 6
